Are You Doing Yourself Justice?

MR. FARMER:—Are you looking ahead for your son, or if you are a renter are you looking ahead for yourself? Are you going to accept this chance for a homestead that Uncle Sam has made possible for you? Are you doing over this, while your more alert neighbor is acting? Don't you realize that the irrigated homesteads now being offered by the government in the Big Horn Basin and North Platte Valley will prove to be the richest land prizes that the government has yet bestowed on its citizens? You certainly ought to know of the present land hunger in this country. Now you have the government furnishing you 80 and 160 acre tracts of land irrigated by the intelligence and financial security of Uncle Sam who has suddenly become the greatest irrigator the world has ever known, who offers you abundant and perpetual water with the choicest land at $35 to $45 per acre in ten annual payments without interest—land that will yield more in one year per acre than the price of the farm. Do you realize what a "good thing" this is in this day and age? If you do not, let me tell you something about it.

Personally conducted homeseekers excursions first and third Tuesdays of each month. Write D. Clem Deaver, General Agent, Landseekers' Information Bureau, 1004 Farnam street, Omaha, for literature.

Berry Wins in Contest

The count was finished in the Berry-McAllister contest case over the county attorneyship last Friday, which was heard before Judge Stinson. The result gave Berry a majority of 18 votes over McAllister.

McAllister immediately gave notice of appeal to the district court, and the bond was fixed at $900.00. This included $200 for costs and $700—twice the amount of six months salary of the office.

J J McAllister, the defendant in the case, who was elected to the office on the face of the returns by a majority of seven votes, took the oath of office on the 7th inst, and will serve as county attorney until the case is heard in the district court.

The greatest change in the recount was made in Summit precinct, where a change of eleven votes was made from McAllister to Berry, and which shows that there was undoubtedly some crooked work done by some one. Following is the result of the recount, by precincts:

ELECTION RETURNS	RECOUNT

Mary Waddell, of South Sioux City visited the High school room Monday morning.

Examinations were given in the different rooms this week.

Someone was very much mistaken when they circulated the report that the Dorcas piano was the property of the M E church. The piano belongs exclusively to the Dorcas society, to be used for the public good as they may see fit. The church only has the use of it.

The Dorcas will have a basket supper Friday evening January 22nd. The proceeds to be applied on the Dorcas piano. Come out and help a cause which the public ought to feel interested in.

Two new scholars were added to Homer's high school this week—daughters of the overseer of the poor farm, Mammie Bachert and Bertha Minter.

Mr and Mrs Eymers, of Bonesteel, who visited Mrs Eymers' Uncle, Seth Barnes and wife, and other relatives for a week, went to Omaha Sunday, where they will reside at Benson, in the future.

It would seem, like every man and boy, with a dozen or fifteen miles of Homer,—the best town in Dakota county—was coming to town these days with grain, hogs or produce of kind or other, from the continual string of teams coming from the north, south, east and west, since C J O'Connor—Homer's bustling business man, jumped in and went to buying grain, etc. He advanced the price on corn alone, 24 cents and is getting about that comes, and you don't hear a farmer kick. Stay with them, "C J."
